Look for	A useful question
The teacher checks the starting level	Did the lesson begin with something my child could attempt?
Corrections are specific	Did the teacher show what to change, rather than only say “wrong”?
The child has time to read	Was the teacher listening, or speaking through most of the session?
Instructions are understood	Could my child follow the explanation without me translating everything?
Practice has a clear purpose	Do we know what to work on before the next lesson?
