Practice workbook

online-vs-in-person-quran-classes · Illustrative learning activities; blank fields are for your own notes.

activity 1

Decision	Online lessons	In-person lessons	What to verify
Correction	Teacher hears the child through a microphone	Teacher hears the child in the room	Does the teacher identify a specific sound and ask for another attempt?
Attention	Individual or group formats may be available	Individual or group formats may be available	Actual group size and individual reading time
Access	Requires internet, device and quiet space	Requires travel and a suitable location	Your real journey or connection reliability
Timetable	Availability depends on teacher and time zone	Availability depends on local timetable	Confirmed time, cancellation terms and make-up policy
Community	Depends on whether learners meet together	A local class may offer shared activities	Actual activities rather than assumed benefits
Parent role	Help with setup, then give the learner space	Help with transport and home practice	How progress and concerns are communicated

activity 2

Check	Observation	Follow-up question
Child heard instructions clearly
Teacher heard the child's reading
One specific correction was explained
Child had a second attempt
Lesson pace matched the current level
Attendance and home practice look manageable
Feedback and cancellation arrangements were explained		