Practice workbook

quran-learning-progress-tracker · Illustrative learning activities; blank fields are for your own notes.

activity 1

Area	Useful observation	What it does not establish
Reading	Located and read the assigned words with or without prompting	Full reading fluency
Correction	Attempted the teacher's named correction	Verified articulation without being heard
Recall	Recalled the assigned portion; note prompts	Long-term retention
Practice	Completed or adjusted the agreed task	Motivation, faith or future results
Understanding	Explained a studied contextual word meaning	Full interpretation of the passage

activity 2

Date	Exact passage reference	Task: reading, correction or recall	Help used	Observation	Question for teacher	Next task

activity 3

Date	Reference	Task	Help used	Observation	Teacher question	Next task
Monday, sample week	Al-Fatihah 1:2	Reading from page	Parent helped find verse	Child located starting word	Can the teacher assess the opening consonants?	Bring verse to lesson
Tuesday, sample week	Al-Fatihah 1:2	Assigned correction	Note from previous lesson	Two attempts made; sound not independently verified	Was the correction applied?	Await teacher feedback
Wednesday, sample week	Al-Ikhlas 112:1–2	Recall	One start prompt	Continued after prompt	Which transition needs practice?	Short transition task
Thursday, sample week	Same assigned transition	Recall	Page used after attempt	Uncertainty recorded	Should the review portion be smaller?	Discuss workload
Weekend, sample week	Teacher-selected portion	Review	To be recorded	No result entered in advance	What should be checked next week?	Plan after feedback